

What Is Scottish Country Dancing?

Scottish Country Dancing (SCD) is a type of traditional dance, today enjoyed worldwide. It evolved from early social dancing in England which was introduced in Scotland in the early eighteenth century. Influences from the French Court can be seen in the balletic foot positions used in SCD and in steps and figures such as pas de basque, allemande, and poussette. By World War II country dancing in Scotland had a tradition of more than 200 years. It was then and still is a form of dancing popular with all classes from ordinary people to gentry.

The preservation and encouragement of SCD was assisted in 1923 with the formation of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society (RSCDS) which is still the official organizing body today.

SCD is social dancing. Participants dance with many people in a set, with eye contact, handing, covering, and polite assistance to less experienced dancers being important aspects of the dance.

SCD is also a modern, evolving dance form, with new dances constantly being written. Because it is taught by RSCDS trained and certificated teachers, it is done the same way all over the world.

The music of Scottish Country dancing is distinctive, whether the quick-time jigs, reels, and hornpipes, or the slow, stately, often romantic Strathspey. The Strathspey, unique to Scottish dancing, it is played with a

What 's to love about SCD?!

Practically everything! It's terrific fun, a wonderful way to make new friends locally, and in the worldwide community of Scottish dancers, and it's great physical and aerobic exercise, while also providing a challenge for the brain. In fact, watch out, because Scottish Country Dancing is addictive, becoming a lifelong enjoyment for most dancers!

Charlottesville Scottish Country Dancers

<http://cscd.avenue.org>

Contacts:

Pat Ruggiero
ruggierop@earthlink.net
(434) 589-6264

Ginny Reese
ginnyreese@gmail.com
(434) 996-0813

We welcome you to join us!

Charlottesville Scottish Country Dancers

Regular Class,
Tuesday nights 7-9 p.m.

Instruction for New Dancers
Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m.

Class Location:
Odd Fellows Hall (upstairs)
(side street off Downtown Mall)
116 4th St. N.E.
Charlottesville, Va.

CSCD sponsors:
dancing to live music,
occasionally on regular class
nights, occasional Friday evening Technique Classes, and two special yearly events attended by the regional Scottish dance community: the Robert Burns Birthday Celebration
including afternoon dance, and evening dinner at Michie Tavern, with all of the traditional Burns Birthday Supper activities, and the Outdoor Spring Dance/Cookout in late May. CSCD also fields a demo team which performs and participates in events locally and regionally.

CSCD Teachers

Ron Lehmkuhl
and Dale Mantautas
rondaledancgypsy
@aol.com
(434) 979-3258

Lou Hanson
Lou.hanson@gmail.com
(734) 994-0184

CSCD classes are taught by teachers with full or preliminary RSCDS
Certification. CSCD supports teachers in training, as a governing ethos, through mentoring and incorporation of new teachers into the teaching schedule.

General Information:

- ◆ New Dancers are always welcome! No prior dance experience necessary, and no partner is needed.
- ◆ Those new to Scottish dancing are strongly encouraged to attend Basic Instruction class. It meets at 6:30 p.m. just before regular class each Tuesday. During this time foot-work and basic dance figures will be taught. Best is to subscribe to a six week series of basic instruction.
- ◆ Please call or email ahead to let a teacher know the first time you plan to attend Basic Instruction.
- ◆ You will need soft flexible shoes such as ballet slippers or jazz shoes or ghillies.
- ◆ There is no dress code for the weekly class. Typical attire is casual pants or the kilt for men, and casual skirts, dresses, or pants for women.
- ◆ Children aged 12 & up are welcome to dance, accompanied by an adult.
- ◆ Class is $5 per class, except your second class is free. Pay for class nightly, monthly, or quarterly .
- ◆ CSCD is governed by an elected board, teachers, and the membership. You can view our constitution and bylaws at our website.
- ◆ Voting members of the group pay dues of $10 per year in May and attend 1/3 of classes per year.

Scottish dancers attend classes, social dances, and balls
in cities all over the U.S.A.
and around the world!

Other Scottish Dance Opportunities

In Virginia:

Charlottesville area
Blue Ridge Scottish Dance Class
Blueridgescdc.webs.com
Celia and Bob Belton 434-979-0939
trouto@embarqmail.com

Richmond
Scottish Country Dancers of Richmond
www.richmondscottishcountrydancers.org
Sandy Gallamore
Agallamore@aol.com

Williamsburg
Www.facebook.com/
WilliamsburgScottishCountryDancers

In the Washington Metropolitan area:
<http://rscds-greaterdc.org/>

Alexandria
Northern Virginia Branch
Jay Andrews 703-719-0596
Ellie Briscoe 703-461-7383

Washington D.C
The Washington D.C. Branch has classes in Baltimore, Bethesda, College Park, and Frederick. Please see website for contacts.